Gilbert Trout joined the Trout companies in 2005. Gilbert is actively involved in numerous capacities, including managing retail and office space, development of large retail and big-box properties, and brokerage of retail, land, and office space. He also is directly involved in promoting and enhancing the technological and informational architecture of the company. Gilbert is a licensed real estate agent in Maryland.

Originally from Boston, Gilbert's interests range from real estate, to music, to technology. In music, Gilbert has conducted and performed with orchestras worldwide, received commissions, awards, and performances of his compositions in America, Europe and Asia. In technology, Gilbert has developed and taught educational multimedia for Harvard University and Tufts University; worked for Perot Systems, an international technology-based provider of business-to-business solutions; and created tools for Web-based dynamic publishing for the electronic publishing division of publisher Houton Mifflin.

Gilbert received his Bachelor's degree from Indiana University and, following three years of work in Athens, Greece, he received his Master's Degree from Tufts University. Gilbert lives with his family in Baltimore City, and is active in several local communal organizations. Gilbert is a licensed EMT with the state of Maryland.
