Mr. Sindler has been in Commercial Real Estate since 1995, following a decade in general construction, doing predominantly municipal contracts. His development knowledge uses a foundation in Industrial Tenant Representation assignments gained while with Colliers Pinkard (Columbia). He mastered the Baltimore-Washington Corridor Tenant base and land inventory as the firm's land specialist. Overseeing McShea & Company, Inc.'s Columbia office for five years, Mr. Sindler did tenant representation assignments while leasing and managing a 700,000 square foot Office and Industrial portfolio (half of which sold in a 1031 Exchange and Investment acquisition).

As an active broker in the Baltimore-Washington Corridor, Mr. Sindler's deals have focused primarily on Industrial transactions, specifically along the Route 1 Corridor in Baltimore, Howard, and Prince George's Counties. Serving two years on the Route 1 Revitalization Committee (Steering Committee), the Board of Directors and (Co-Chair) Economic Development Committee of the Baltimore-Washington Corridor Chamber (BWCC), he has a strong knowledge of the tenants, landlords/property owners and development opportunities south of Baltimore to the District of Columbia.

Mr. Sindler's client base ranges from small, solely-owned concerns to national /multi-national firms, institutional/pension funds and developers. With a tenant representation core business, other assignments include:

- User building acquisition/disposition
- Office/industrial/retail development
- Office/retail/industrial portfolio leasing, management, disposition and acquisition

With Trout Daniel & Associates he will work on retail site acquisition, development opportunities and tenant representation. A Loyola College graduate, his strong community ties keep him involved with development committees, volunteering and coaching a Howard County Youth Program.
